

Faculty Recital

Tucker Hall-Klingensmith, clarinets

Andrea Hixon, oboe and English horn

Andy Hudson, clarinet

Joseph Connor, saxophone

Brigit Pacher, bassoon

Anthony Padilla, piano

Saturday, September 26, 2026

5:00 p.m.

Harper Hall

|                                      |                                                                                                                                                                    |     |
|--------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Valerie Coleman(b. 1970)  | Sonatine                                                                                                                                                    | 7'  |
|                                      | Tucker Hall-Klingensmith, clarinetAnthony Padilla, piano                                                                                                       |     |
| Zachary Good(b. 1991)     | When the old are young                                                                                                                                      | 4'  |
|                                      | Tucker Hall-Klingensmith, clarinet                                                                                                                                 |     |
| Alan Theisen(b. 1981)     | Lineamenti                                                                                                                                                  | 7'  |
|                                      | Tucker Hall-Klingensmith, bass clarinetAndy Hudson, clarinet                                                                                                   |     |
| Nico Muhly(b. 1981)       | Look For Me                                                                                                                                                 | 7'  |
|                                      | Andrea Hixon, oboe and English hornAndy Hudson, clarinetTucker Hall-Klingensmith, bass clarinetJoseph Connor, alto saxophoneBrigit Pacher, bassoon |     |
| Unsuik Chin(b. 1961)      | Advice from a Caterpillar                                                                                                                                   | 10' |
|                                      | Tucker Hall-Klingensmith, bass clarinet                                                                                                                            |     |
| Jonathan Russell(b. 1979) | Nomad Concerto                                                                                                                                              | 20' |
|                                      | Free and rhapsodicFast and drivingSlow and lyricalFast and grooving                                                                                    |     |
|                                      | Tucker Hall-Klingensmith, bass clarinetAnthony Padilla, piano                                                                                                  |     |

We collectively acknowledge that Lawrence University is situated on the ancestral homelands of the Menominee and Ho-Chunk people.